

What ever happened to capitalism and competition. If XM provides a superior service, I should be able to access it and they deserve to succeed. Its ashamed that the FCC would consider backing the NAB in producing subpar service. Let the consumer decide. The NAB is equally capable of the same quality, lets make them give it to us.